IS A WONDERFUL LITTLE WO-MEN.

Annie May Abbott Proves a Mystery to Her Audience.

For a little over eight years the scientific world has studied the remarkable performances of Miss Annie May Abbott, the "Georgia wonder," and has acknowledged itself unable to explain the power or force with which she accomplishes her feats. Last evening Miss Abbott appeared in Spokane for the first time and thoroughly interested and delighted her cultivated and intelligent audience.

Mr. Abbey, her manager, first made a few remarks in excellent taste, saying that the great scientists of the world differed in their theories in regard to Miss Abbott, calling it hypnotism, magnetism, odic force or electricity, while it apparently partook of all and differed from all. He then invited a committee of gentlemen upon the platform, including Dr. N. Fred. Essig, Dr. Kimball, Colonel Frank Boyd, Captain Thompson, Colonel J. Kennedy Stout, Colonel D. P. Jenkins, Messrs. George Forster, B. B. Glascock, Lane Gilliam, Oscar Peterson, H. G. Brown and Charles Stewart.

Miss Annie May Abbott, who then appeared, is a girl in the early twenties, slight in figure, weight 98 pounds, with dark eyes and hair and a pleasant, refined manner. Her startling performances should be seen, as no explanation of them can be given. Each member of the committee lifted her easily, then exerting her power, it became impossible to move from her the floor. Standing on one heel, pressing the palms of her hands against a wooden pole, four strong men could not push her back. She lifted a heavy chair with six men upon it; six men could not push the pole through her open hands; the entire committee tried in vain to push her against the wall, against which she lightly rested her hands, and she did other acts as remarkable.

One of the most curious feats was that with the child en. First calling into the aisle Master Bertie Cole and a gentleman sitting near, she told the boy to fix his eyes upon her, she being on the stage, 30 feet or more away, and after telling him that he could not be raised from the floor, asked the gentleman to try to lift him. He was unable to move him. She then called a dozen children on the stage and succeeded in repeating the experiment with most of them, merely holding their hands, and then forming a circuit of hands, five at once were fastened to the floor. Strong men tried in vain to lift little girls of 5 years.

Miss Abbott has little physical strength. She can not lift 100 pounds of inanimate weight. Her wonderful power only comes when in touch with human beings. When she lifts a chair with five or six men on it she does not grasp it but lays her open hands against it. The force she possesses is clearly other than physical.

Miss Abbott is on her way to Japan, and around the world, but it is to be hoped that she may revisit Spokane, for she is truly one of the wonders and mysteries of the age.—
"Review," Spokane, Wt.

Miss Abbott came in on the Alameda and takes the City of Peking for Japan and tour around to New York. While here she will give two performances at the Y. M.
C. A. Hall, Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

Saus Souci.

The most lovely spot on Oahu is Saus Souci. This favorite seaside resort, which has been immortalized by the pen of Robert L. Stevenson, who resided there for months, is only four miles from Honolulu and within easy reach of the tramcars.
The surroundings and bathing at this famous resort are superior to anything found in the Hawaiian Islands. Cottages and board can be obtained on easy terms. The table set by the manager is better than any offered here at other hotels. For picnics, bathing parties and outings the best accommodation can be secured by giving notice to the manager.
